D! BULL'S OUGH (YRUP

Is still at the front! You can rely on it! It never fails to perform a cure!

Dr. Bull's Cough is sold by all dealers for 25c Don't be misled. If a dealer offers you come other "just an good," lunbs on getting the old reliable Dr. Buff's Cough Strup. No imitation pro-

CHEW LANGE'S PLUGS, Vito Grant Polonics AT THE TABERNACLE.

REV. DR. TALMAGE PREACHES A SER-MON OF REMARKABLE POWER.

An Old Faskioned Gespel Plea Couched In Words of Surpassing Elequence - The Feast Proposed by Divine Power -- An

BROOKLYN, Jan. 38.—The usual large audience assembled in the Tabernacle today and listened to a sermon of remarkable power and interest by Rev. Dr. Talmage, the subject being "Festivity." The text selected was Luke xiv, 17, "Come, for all things are now ready."

things are now ready."

It was one of the most exciting times in English history when Queen Elizabeth visited Lord Leicester at Kenilworth castle. The moment of her arrival was considered so important that all the clocks of the castle were stopped, so that the hands might point to that one moment as being the most sig-nificant of all. She was greeted to the gate with floating islands and torches and the thunder of cannon and fireworks that set the night ablaze, and a great burst of music that lifted the whole scene into perfect enchantment. Then she was introduced in a dining hall, the luxuries of which astonished the world. Four hundred servants waited upon the guests. The entertainment cost $5,000 ench day. Lord Leicester made that great supper in Kenilworth castle, Cardinal Wolsey cutertained the French embassadors at Hampton court. The best cooks in all the land prepared for the banquet. Purveyors went out and traveled all the kingdom over to find spoils for the table. The time came. The guests were kept during the day hunting in the king's park, so that their appetites might be keen, and then in the evening, to the sound of the trumpeters, they were introduced into a hall hung with silk and cloth of gold. and there were tables aglitter with imperial plate and laden with the rarest of meats and ablush with the costliest wines. And when the second course of the feast came it was found that the articles of food had been fashioued into the shape of men, birds and beasts, and groups dancing, and jonsting parties riding against each other with lances. Lords and princes and embassadors out of cups filled to the brim drank the health first of the king of Eng land and next of the king of France. Cardinal Wolsey prepared that great supper in

A DIVINE BANQUET. But I have to tell you of a grander enter tainment. My Lord the King is the ban-queter. Angels are the cupbearers. All the redeemed are the guests. The halls of eternal love, frescoed with light and paved with joy and curtained with unfading beauty, are the banqueting place. The ies of eternity are the music. The chalices of heaven are the plate, and I am of the servants coming out with both hands filled with invitations, scattering them everywhere, and, oh, that for your selves you might break the seal of the invitation and read the words written in red ink of blood by the tremulous hand of a dying Christ, "Come now, for all things

There have been grand entertainments where was a taking off—the wine gave out, or the servants were rebellious, or the light failed, but I have gone all around about this subject and looked at the redemption which Christ has provided, and I come here to tell you it is complete, and I swing open the door of the feast, telling you that "all things are now ready.

In the first place, I have to announce that the Lord Jesus Christ himself is ready. Cardinal Wolsey came into the feast after the first course. He came in booted and spurred, and the guests arose and cheered him. But Christ comes in at the very beginning of the feast-aye, he has been waiting 1,804 years for his guests. He has been standing on his mangled feet. He has had his sore hand on his punctured side, or he has been pressing his lacerated temples-

It is wonderful that he has not been im patient, and that he has not said, "Shut the door, and let the laggard stay out," but he has been waiting. No banqueter ever waited for his guests so patiently as Christ has waited for us. To prove how willing he is to receive us, I gather all the terrs that rolled down his cheeks in sympathy for your sorrows. I gather all the drops of blood that channeled his brow, and his back, and his hands and feet, in trying to purchase your redemption. I gather all the groans that he uttered in midnight chili, and in mountain hunger, and in desert loneliness, and twist them into one crybitter, agonizing, overwhelming.

I gather all the pains that shot from spear and spike and cross jolting into one g-remorseless, grinding, exeruciating, and under the gospel glass that drop en-larges until I see in it lakes of sorrow and nn ocean of agony. That being standing before you now, emaclated and gashed and gory, coaxes for your love with a pathos in which every word is a heartbreak and every sentence a martyrdom. How can you think he trifles?

A PEAST FOR ALL ETERNITY. Ahasuerus prepared a feast for 180 days, but this feast is for all eternity. Lords and princes were invited to that. You and I and all our world are invited to this. Christ is ready. You know that the banqueters of olden time used to wrap themselves in robes prepared for the occasion. So my Lord Jesus hath wrapped himself in all that is beautiful. See how fair ne is. His eye, his brow, his cheek, so radiant that the stars have no gleam and the morning no brilliancy compared with it. His face reflecting all the joys of the redeemed, his hand having the omnipotent surgery with which he opened blind eyes and straight-ened crooked limbs and hoisted the pillars of heaven and swung the 13 gates which

A Chance to Make $500-or Better! A slim chance, you fancy. Well, read the judge for yourself. You have Catarrh. $500 is offered for an incurable case of Catarrh in the Head, by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Rem-

Symptoms of Catarrh.—Headache, obstruction of the nose, discharges fallinto the threat, sometimes profuse, watery and acid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purient, bloody, putrid and offensive breath; smell and taste impared, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once. Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. Only 50 cents. sold by druggists everywhere. $500 or a cure. Either would be acceptable.

There are not enough cups in heaven to dip up this cosan of beauty. There are not ladders enough to scale this height of love. There are not enough cymbals to clap, or harps to thrum, or trumpets to peal forth the praises of this one altogether fair. Oh, thou flower of eternity, thy breath is the perfume of heaven! Oh, bliasful daybreak, let all people clap their hands in thy radiance! Chorus: Come, men and saints and cherubim and seraphim and archangel—all ancel Chorus: Come, men and saints and cherubim and seraphim and archangel—all heights, all depths, all immensities. Chorus: Roll him through the heavens in a chariet of universal acclaim, over bridges of hosanas, under arches of coronation, along by the great towers chiming with sternal jubiles. Chorus: "Unto him who hath loved us and washed us from our sins in the complex of the love o his own blood, to him be glory, world with

I have a word of five letters, but no shee white enough on which to write it and no pen good enough with which to inscribe it. Give me the fairest leaf from the heavenly Give me the fairest leaf from the heavening records—give me the pencil with which the angel records his victory—and then, with my hand strung to supernatural ecstasy and my pen dipped in the light of the morning I will write it out in capitals of love, "J.E.S.U.S." It is this one, infinitely fair, te whom you are invited. Christ is waiting to whom you are invited. Christ is waiting for yon, waiting as a banqueter waits for the delayed guest—the meats smoking, the beakers brimming, the minstrels with fin-gers on the ctiff string, waiting for the clash of the hoofs at the gateway. Waiting for you as a mother waits for her sen who went off 16 yours ago, dragging her bleeding heart along with him. Wait-ing! Oh, cive me a comparison intense an audience is assembled for Christian worship the air is full of them. If each one of you has a guardian angal, how many celetials there are here! They crowd the place, they hover, they fift about, they rejoice.

Look! That spirit is just come from the throne. A moment ago it stood before Christ and heard the doxology of the glorifled. Look! Bright immortal, what news from the golden city? Speak, spirit blest!
The response comes melting on the air,
"Come, for all things are now ready!" Angels ready to bear the tidings, angals ready to drop the benediction, angals ready to kindfe the jey. They have stood in glory—they knew all about it. They have felt the joy that is feit where there are no tears and no graves; immertal health, but no invalidism; songs, but no groans; wedding bells, but no funeral torches—eyes that never weep, hands that never bister, heafs that never faint, hearts that never break, friendships that are never weakened. her bleeding heart along with him. Waiting! Oh, give me a comparison intense emough, hot emough, importunate enough to express my meaning—comething high as heaven, and deep as hell, and long as etarnity. Not hoping that you can help me with such a comparison, I will say, "He is waiting as only the all sympathetic Christ, can wait for the coming back of a lost soul."

Bow the knee and kiss the Son.

Come, and welcome, sinner; come.

ships that are never weakened.

Ready, all of them! Ready thrones, principalities and powers! ready scraphim and cherubim! Ready, Michael the Archange!

Again, your kindred in glory are all ready for your coming. I pronounce modern spiritualism a fraud and a sham. If John Milton and George Whitefield have no better business than to crawl under a table and rattle the leaves, they had better stay at home in glory. While I believe that modern spiritualism is bad, because of its mental and domestic ravages, common sense, co-lightened by the word of God, teaches us that our friends in glory sympathize with

This Bible says plainly there is joy in heaven among the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. And if angels rejoice and know of it, shall not our friends standing among them, know it? Some of these spirits in glory toiled for your redemp grief was that you were not a Christian. They said, "Meet me in heaven," and put their bands out from the cover and said, "Goodby." Now, suppose you should cross over from a sinful life to a holy life. Suppose you should be born into the kingdom Suppose you should now say: "Farewell

O deceitful world! Get thee gone, my sin! Fie upon all the follies! O Christ, belp me or I perish! I take thy promise. I believe thy word. I enter thy service."

Suppose you should say and do this. Why, the angel sent to you would shout upward, "He is coming!" and the angel, poising higher in the air, would shout it upward, "He is coming!" and it would run up all the line of light from wing to wing and from trumpet to trumpet until it reached the gate, and then it would flash to "the house of many mansions," and it would find out your kindred there, and be fore your tears of repentance had been wiped from the cheek and before you had finished your first prayer your kindred in glory would know of it, and another heaven would be aided to their joy, and they would cry: "My prayers are answered. Another loved one saved. Give me a harp with which to strike the joy. Saved, saved, saved!"

If I have shown you that "all things are ready;" that Christ is ready; that the Holy Spirit is ready; that the church is ready; that the angels in glory are ready; that all the concentrated emphasis of my soul I ask you if you are ready? You see my subject throws the whole responsibility upon yourself. If you do not get into the King's banquet, it is because you do not accept the invitation. You have the most importunate invitation. Two arms stretched down from the cross, soaked in blood from elbow to finger tips, two lips quivering in mortal anguish, two eyes beaming with infinite love, saying, "Come, come, for all things

AN ELOQUENT PERORATION.

I told you that when the queen came to Kenilworth castle they stopped all the clocks, that the finger of time might be pointed to that happy moment of her arrival. Oh, if the King would come to the castle of your soul, you might well afford to stop all the clocks, that the hands might forever point to this moment as the one most bright, most blessed, most tremen circle to circle and invite every one of you

according to the invitation of my text, say

I would like to take every one of you by almost gone down, through the dust of the Christ has fed thee all thy life long, do you

Come, those of you who are farthest away from God. Drunkard! Christ can put out the fire of thy thirst. He can break that shackle. He can restore thy blasted home.

Go to Jesus. Libertine! Christ saw thee where then wert last night. He knows of thy sin. Yet, if thou wilt bring thy pol-throw over it the mantle of his pardon and luted soul to him this moment, he thee, poor lost waif of the street.

thou canst not see the kingdom of God.

would tear them off and leave you naked at the gate. You must be born again. The day is far spent. The cliffs begin to slide their long shadows across the plain. Do you know the feast has already begun-the King sits with his guests, and the servant

it shut. It is half way shut. It is threefourths shut. It is only just ajar. Soon it will be shut.

stands with his hand on the door of the banqueting room, and he begins to swing

"Come, for all things are now ready

Have I missed one man? Who has not felt himself called this hour? Then I call him

now. This is the hour of thy redemption.

While God invites, how blest the day,

Miss Mary Garrett.

One woman worth $20,000,000 is Miss

Mary Garrett of Baltimore, daughter of the great railroad king. She is quite stout, of medium height, with a pale face and blue eyes, a bit concealed by gold rimmed spec tacles. She spends most of her time trav eling, speaks half a dozen languages flu-ently and keeps herself as well posted on all railroad affairs as does her brother Robert, the present head of the Baltimore and Ohio system.

You can never tell what a slight cold may lead to; it is best, therefore, to yourself the benefit of the doubt,

How sweet the gospel's charming sound! Come, sinner, haste, oh, haste away, While yet a pardoning God is found.

feast to which you were invited-and the

Now, I wish I could go around from

are now ready."

our redemption.

A LINE WANTING.

Again, the Holy Spirit is ready. Why is It that so many sermons drop dead; that Christian songs do not get their wing under the people; that so often prayer goes no higher than a hunter's "halloa?" It is be cause there is a link wanting—the work of the Holy Spirit. Unless that Spirit give grappling hooks to a sermon and lift the prayer and waft the song everything is a dead failure. That Spirit is willing to come at our call and lead you to eternal life, or ready to come with the same power with which he unhorsed Saul on the Damascus turnpike and broke down Lydia in her fine store and lifted the 3,000 from midnight in to midnoon at the Pentecost. With that power the Spirit of God now beats at the gate of your soul. Have you not noticed what homely and insignificant instrumen-tality the Spirit of God employs for man's

There was a man on a Hudson river boat to whom a tract was offered. With indig nation he tore it up and threw it overboard But one fragment lodged on his coatsleeve and he saw on it the word "eternity," and he found no peace until he was prepared for that great future. Do you know what passage it was that caused Martin Luther to see the truth? "The just shall live by faith." Do you know there is one—just one—passage that brought Augustine from a life of dissipation? "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ and make no provision for the flesh to fullfil the lusts thereof." was just one passage that converted Hedley Vicars, the great soldier, to Christ, "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin." Do you know that the Holy Spirit used one passage of Scripture to save Jona-than Edwards? "Now, unto the King ster-nal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory."

One year ago on Thanksgiving day I read for my text, "Ob, give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." And there is a young man in the house to whose heart the Holy Spirit took that text for his eternal redemption. I might speak of my own case. I will tell you I was brought to the peace of the gospel through the Syro-Phoenician woman's cry to Christ, "Even the dogs eat of the crumbs that fall from the master's table." SAVING SOULS BY SIMPLE MEANS.

Do you know that the Holy Spirit almost always uses insignificant means? Eloquent sermons never save anybody; metaphysical sermons never save anybody; philosophical sermons never save anybody. But the min ister comes some Sabbath to his pulpit, worn out with engagements and the jangling of a frenzied doorbell; he has only a text and two or three ideas, but he says: "O Lord, help me! Here are a good many people I may never meet again. I have not much to say. Speak thou through my poor lips," and before the service is done there are tearful eyes and a solemnity like the

The great French orator, when the dead king lay before him, looked up and cried, "God only is great." And the triumph of his eloquence has been told by the historians. But I have not heard that one soul was saved by the oratorical flourish. Worldly critics may think that the early preach ing of Thomas Chalmers was a masterpiece But Thomas Chalmers says he never began to preach until be came out of the sickroom, white and emaciated, and told men the simple story of Jesus.

In the great day of eternity it will be found that the most souls have been brought to Christ not by the Bossuets and Massillons and Bourdaloues, but by humble men, who in the strength of God and believing in the eternal Spirit, invited men to Jesus There were wise salves, there were excellent ointments, I suppose, in the time of Christ for blind or inflamed eyes. But Jesus turned his back upon them and put the tip of his finger to his tongue and then with the spittle that adhered to the firger he anointed the eyes of the blind man, and daylight poured into his blinded soul. So it is now that the spirit of God takes that humble prayer meeting talk, which seems to be the very saliva of Christian influence, and anoints the eyes of the blind and pours the sunlight of pardon and peace upon the

Oh, my friend, I wish we could feel it more and more that if any good is done it is by the power of God's omnipotent spirit. I do not know what hymn may bring you to Jesus. I do not know what words of the Scripture lessons I read may save your soul. Perhaps the spirit of God may hurl the very text into your heart, "Come, for all things are now ready."
ALL READY FOR THE PEAST.

Again, the church is ready. O man, if I could take the curtain off these Christian hearts, I could show you a great many anxieties for your redemption. You think that old man is asleep, because his head is down and his eyes are shut. No; he is praying for your redemption and hoping that the words spoken may strike your heart Do you know the air is full of prayer? Do you know that prayer is going up from Ful-ton street prayer meeting and from Friday evening prayer meeting and going up every hour of the day for the redemption of the people? And if you should just start to ward the door of the Christian church how quickly it would fly open! Hundreds of people would say: "Give that man room at the sacrament. Bring the silver bowl for his baptism. Give him the right hand of Christian fellowship. Bring him into all Christian associations."

Oh, you wanderer on the cold moun-tains, come into the warm sheepfold. I let down the bars and bid you come in. With the Shepherd's crook I point you the way. Hundreds of Christian hands beckon you into the church of God. A great many you into the church of cod. A great many people do not like the church and say it is a great mass of hypocrites, but it is a glo-rious church with all its imperfections. Christ bought it, and hoisted the pillars and swung its gates, and lifted its arches and curtained it with upholstery crimso with crucifixion carnage. Come into it. We are a garden walled around.

QUIET AT HAWAII OHIO STATE NEWS.

WHEN THE STEAMER MONOWAL SAILED JANUARY 12. ensational Rumor About Minister Willis.

A little spot inclosed by grace,
Out of the world's wild wilderness.

Again, the angels of God are ready. A great many Christians think that the talk about angels is fanciful. You say it is a very good subject for theological students who have just begun to sermonize, but for older men it is improper. There is no more proof in that Bible that there is a God than that there are angels. Why, do not they swarm about Jacob's ladder? Are we not The Question of Forming an Independent Republic Being Considered by the told that they conducted Lazarus upward; that they stand before the throne, their faces covered up with their wings, while they cry, "Holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty?" Did not David see thousands and thousands? Did not one angel slar 185.000 Provisional Government. San Francisco, Jan. 22,-The steam er Monowai, from Sydney, via Honolulu Jan. 12, arrived Friday evening. All quiet at Hawaii.

thousands? Did not one angel slay 185,000 men in Sennacherib's army? And shall they Minister and Consul General Feel Sere Both Minister Willis and Consul Gennot be the chief harvesters at the judgment? There is a line of loving, holy, mighty eral Mills appear to be sore on accoun of the treatment of the United States government in Hawaii, as well as on acangels reaching to heaven. I suppose they reach from here to the very gate, and when count of the personal snubbing they claim the American residents here gave an audience is assembled for Christian wor-ship the air is full of them. If each one of them lately.

> Is eparing to Colebrate. When the Menowai sailed, the gov ernment had determined to cele-brate the 17th of January as a holiday, and preparations were being made to carry out a big demenstration.

Question of a Republic. The question of a republic still occu-pied attention, but the government was delaying action awaiting absolute reje-ction of Hawaii's hopes by the United Revallet Unrising Rumors of an expected royalist upris-fig have been prevalent recently. In an interview with Marshal Hitchcock, that officer said: "The government is fully prepared to meet any entbreak either here or on the other inlands."

Just previous to the sailing of the Monowai, a sensational rumor was curent which was traced to an authoritative source that a few days after President Dele's reply was delivered to Minister Willis, and before full details of Willis' demand and Dole's reply had become public, Willis called on Dole and endeavored to persuade him to return all of his (Willis') correspondence on the subject of restoration and to expunge from the records Dole's reply and everyfrom the records Dole's reply and every-thing else pertaining to the subject and to maintain absolute secrecy about the whole transaction.

Dole flatly refused to enter into such plan, and it is said that Willis then attempted to force Dole to act according to his wishes, threatening to take the American men-of-war out of the harbor and practically break off diplomatic re-lations between the United States and Hawaii. Dole still refused to enter into the project, and Willis' alleged attempt to nullify his restoration policy failed.

MORE HAWAIIAN NEWS.

Another Installment of Papers From Willis to the President. WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The president has transmitted an additional installment of Hawaiian papers received from Mr. Willis. The retirement of Vice President Hatch is announced, and the election of W. C. Wilder to succeed him. The executive council, the correspondent rine executive coincin, the correspondent says, has been increased from four to five persons, a minister of foreign affairs being added. The president has hereto-fore discharged the duties of that office.

A petition and memorial addressed to President Cleveland from the Hawaiian Patriotic league claiming to represent 8,000 legal voters, is inclosed by Minister Willis without comment. The memorial alleges a conspiracy of Minister Stevens and the present provisional government and deny that the present provisiona government represents the people of Specifications are made of alleger incompetency in the provisional

Sent to Congress

Washington, Jan. 22.—The pread in a brief note of transmittal Saturday submitted to congress the latest correspondence relating to Hawaii. It comprises some brief notes of Minister Willis to Secretary Gresham which are important, but the chief features of it are letters passing between Minister Willis and President Dole, in one of which the minister complains of an utterance of President Dole as reflecting on the president of the United States, and a letter from President Dole, in which he specifically inquires if Minister Willis' instructions authorized the use of force. Both these matters appear to have been settled by the receipt of the last message of the president to congress and the last in structions of Secretary Gresham to Min-

The most important part of the correspondence consists of a long letter from Minister Willis to Secretary Gresham containing enclosures of correspondence between President Dole and himself.

Thurston Interviewed On a Train.

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 22,-Minister the hand and say, "Come!" Old man, who hast been wandering 60 or 70 years, thy sun Thurston from Hawaii talked quite freely Saturday while en route to Washington on the Pennsylvania limited express evening stretch out your withered hand to Christ. He will not cast thee off, old He was met at Pittsburg by a representa-tive of the Associated Press, who rode man. Oh, that one tear of repentance might with him 125 miles, and interviewed him trickle down thy wrinkled cheek! After concerning the news from Hawaii via the Monowai. not think you can afford to speak one word He said that while the news brought was later than anything he had, the dispatches contained nothing of import ance. He knew nothing of the demand alleged to have been made by Minister Willis on President Dole for the return of all the correspondence on the subject of restoration and preferred not to comment upon the rumor.

"Do you anticipate any early action of your government looking to a reorgani zation?" asked the reporter.

love. Mercy for thee, oh, thou chief of sin-ners! Harlot, thy feet foul with hell and "For the immediate present," said he thy laughter the horror of the street. Oh, Mary Magdalene, look to Jesus. Mercy for the "provisional government will take no action toward reorganizing the form of government until congress has indicated righteous man, thou must be born again, or what course it proposes to take. will then be done depends upon circum Do you think you can get into the feast with those rags? Why, the King's servant stances at the time.

"Whatever is done will be in subordi nation to and in furtherance of the originally deciared object of the revolution, viz: Union with the United States in some form or other, the method and conditions are a matter of minor consideration. "The ressons for this are the same that existed at the time of the revolution. They are that the late royal family has shown itself devoid of honor and naworthy of confidence."

End of the Tariff Talk. Washington, Jan. 23.—The third and last week of the tariff debate in the house opened with a slim attendance of members and visitors. After the reading of Saturday's journal and of some executive communications, the house went into committee of the whole to consider the tariff bill.

What is commonly called "touch"—i. e., good or bad touch, harsh or mellow touch—in pianoforte playing is really far more dependent upon a proper or improper use of the dampers, of the way in which successive notes in a phrase are made to follow one upon the other, than it is upon the manner in which the keys are struck or the particular initial force given to individual notes. In a word, a pjanist's "touch" lies far more in his brain than in "musical handling of the phrase" than in the method of striking the keys.—Lecture and cure it as soon as possible with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A day's delay, sometimes an hour's delay, may result by B. J. Lang.

NOTES OF INTEREST TO OUR READ-ERS IN OUR OWN STATE.

Concise and Condensed Telegraphic Repurts of the Week-An Interesting Coi. New York to be associate justice of the lection of Items From Here and There Throughout the State.

T. J. Kirkland, a horsethief, was captured at Greenville, O. Henry Miller of Athens, O., died as the ultimate result of swallowing two pins Measies is ruging at Delaware, O.

Barnesville, O., has the oil fever bad. A recently drilled well made an excellent showing.

May Revel, aged 3 years, atumbled into a bonfire at Canton, O., and was horribly burned. She will die. Gussie Clark, 16 years old, is mysterious ly missing from Springfield, O. She is sup-posed to have joined a theatrical company posed to have joined a theatrical company at Columbus.

The grand jury at West Union, O., failed to find any one guilty of the lynching of Roscos Parker. No bills were found against the mother of Roscos Parker or his Three Unknowns Killed. STRUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 28.-Freight train No. 76, eastbound, on the Pitts-burg, Cincinnati and St. Louis road, broke in two on the Fernwood grade. When the two sections came together there was a fearful crash, wrecking five cars. The bodies of three men, supposed to be tramps, were taken out of the wreck. Their identity is unknown.

SALRM, O., Jan. 28 .- A notorious crook, who has been posing as a Catholic priest and passing forged checks on a number of banks, was arrested in this city by Detective Bosten. He gave his name as Jones, but was doing business under the alias of Father Doyle, Father Howells and other reverends. His forgeries in all amount to about $300.

geries in all amount to about $300 Gold at Williamsburg, O. WILLIAMSBURG, O., Jan. 19.-This usually quiet little city is now greatly excited over the fact that a gold mine has been discovered within its borders. A company of capitalists from the east was here the first of the week with a view of purchasing the tract of land. Specimens of the gold ore are on exhibition at the Williamsburg bank.

Three Were Killed.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 23 .- On the northern outskirts of the city a Toledo and Ohio Central passenger train ran into a wagon containing six persons, and killed D. Rokecker and wife and Henry Rusb. Rokecker and wife and Henry Russell outright. The three other occupants—Mrs. William Hershey, John Sullivan and a 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Hershey—were fatally injured.

Crap Games Must Go. PORTSMOUTH, O., Jan. 19 .- Judge Dever of the common pleas court is making a stern fight against the gamblers and Sunday law violators at this term of court. He fined M. Bender $300 and costs for operating a crap game, and Henry Baker $150 for a similar offense.

Child Fatally Burned. OSTRANDER, O., Jan. 19.-Robert, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gamble, living three miles west of here, was alone in the house, and by some means his clothing caught fire. He was so badly burned about the limbs and abdomen that death resulted.

Killed by a Fall. STEUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 22.-Vernon Taylor, aged 18, while measuring the roof at the new Folk building, on South Fourth street, walked off backward and fell a distance of 30 feet. He was so badly injured that he died in 45 minutes, Indicted For Embezzlement. LOGAN, O., Jan. 20 .- The grand jury, which recently arose, found an indict ment against L. A. Culver, chargins him with embezzling the sum of $50,000 of the bank's funds while president of Bank Assigns.

LIMA, O., Jan. 20.—The Exchange bank of Ottawa, Putnam county. Samuel Slauson, president, has assigned to Dr. W. F. Reed and B. F. McGreevey. De positors will be paid in full.

Vetoed by the President. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. - The New York and New Jersey bridge bill has been vetoed by the president.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Thursday.

House—Bills passed: House bill to allow a married woman to serve as executrix or administratrix. Bills introduced—Extending the lien law to tombstones, gravestones, etc.; providing for the compilation and dis-tribution of road and highway laws; repeal-ing the Phillips law prohibiting the sale of liquor in brothels: providing a penalty for shipping out of the state or having in his possession any protected game, birds or animals, during closed seasons; to extend the time of payment for turnpike under the one-mile law from 10 to 15 years; to prohibit the selling of or bartering of qual prohibit the selling of or bartering of quar for one year.

SENATE—Bills introduced: Giving pro bate courts concurrent jurisdiction with common pleas courts when the latter are not in session in cases of confessed judg-ment when the amount is less than $100; punishing fraudulent spiritual scances; re-quiring monthly payment of wages of rail-road employes.

Friday.

HOUSE-Bills introduced: Amending see House—Bills introduced: Amending section 5100 so as to provide that if a venire is issued during the vacation of courts that legal service may be made by mail; amending section 3051, authorizing discharge of national guard officers by court of inquiry as well as court marshal; prohibiting the use of nets and trotlines in private lakes and ponds. Adjourned until Monday.

SENATE—Bills introduced: Prohibiting the use of ferrers in hunting rabbits; polis in country precincts to open at 5:30 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. Adjourned until Monday.

Monday.

House - Bills introduced: Requiring monthly payment of wages to railroad em-ployes under a penalty of a fine from $100 to $300; authorizing the railroad commis-sioner to order the placing of automatic alarm bells instead of gates or watchmen at dangerous crossings; making liable to punishment drunkards to whom saloon-keepers have been forbidden to sell liquor. to purchase or attempt to purchase intox to purchase or attempt to purchase intoxicating liquors.

SENATE—Bills introduced: Prohibiting county auditors from receiving railroad passes; authorizing clerks of courts to fill vacancies in struck juries occasioned by the disqualification of members thereof; limiting telephone charges; prohibiting the coloring of oleomargarine, also fraud in its sale.

Made the Burglar Disgorge.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 22. - Mrs. Schimmel, residing in the East End, discovered a burglar in her house. called her neighbor, Mrs. Frey, and the two women entered the house, captured the burglar, made him unload his booty and then released him.

Chicage Will Now Be Happy. Washington, Jan., 22.—The subcom mittee of the house committee on public buildings Saturday agreed to report favorably to the full committee Repre-sentative McGann's bill for the erection of a new government building in Chicago.

W. H. PECKHAM OF NEW YORK Appointed Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The president Monday sent the following nomination to the senate: Wheeler H. Peckham of supreme court of the United States. Mr Peckham was a delegate to the famous

'anti-enapper" convention. "anti-mapper" convention.

Wheeler Hazzard Peckham was born in Albany, Jan. 1, 1883. He was educated at the Albany and Union academies, being compelled to leave the latter institution on account of impaired health. He has been practicing law in New York city for many years, and in 1884 was appointed district attorney, which office he resigned the same year. He is a sen of the late Rufus Wheeler Peckham, a famous jurist of New York Peckham, a famous jurist of New York who was on the supreme bench of that state for 16 years, and was afterward a member of the court of claims. Mr. Peckhain was a prominent "anti-snap per" last year.

PLAYED A BOLD GAME.

Mr. Ingalls' Name Used by a Swindler to Build a Branch Railroad.

QUINCY, Ills., Jan. 23 .- A. M. Van Auken of Chicago played a bold game here for $30,000, but secured only several hundred. Van Auken came to Quincy several weeks ago, claiming to be the agent of a syndicate backed by the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis road, and to the incorporators of a local road-proposed to be built from here to Beardstown-represented that the Big Four was anxious to extend its line from Peoria to Quincy.

A week ago Van Auken returned to Quincy with a contract signed by M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, by which that road agreed to pay back to the Quincy capitalists the $30,000 which they were asked to advance to Van Auken for the expenses of the preliminary work. Attached to this contract was a bond, also signed by Mr. Ingalls, for the faithful performance of the work. The capitalists began to be suspicious by this time, but advanced Van Auken several hundred dollars. They determined to investigate, and the contract and bond were discovered to be forgeries. In the meantime Van Auken disappeared.

Oil Excitement at Fostoria, O.

Fostoria, Jan. 23,-Oil excitement i running higher than ever in this vicinity The new territory west of the city is be ing covered with derricks as rapidly as possible, and two or three more wells will be in this week. Maloney No. 1 which came in about three weeks ago and flowed at the rate of 200 barrels per day, was shot Monday afternoon and is now flowing at the rate of 25 barrels an hour. The Wiseman well, which caused so much excitement two weeks ago, has been drilled deeper and is now producing at the rate of 200 barrels a day.

Bullet Removed After Thirty Years. BARBOURSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 23 .- Mr. Thomas Platt, a farmer of the western part of the county, a day or two ago had a physician extract a minie ball from his leg, which found lodgment there during the battle of Shilo, which was fought on Sunday, April 2, 1863. Mr. Platt says the ball gave him no trouble until last

Killed at a Crossing WINDFALL, Ind., Jan. 23 .- Mrs. William Stewart was instantly killed near Tipton, at the crossing of the Erie railroad. Herself and husband were on the way home in a spring wagon when a freight train struck the wagon. The husband escaped by jumping. Ten Cents Causes a Murder. SEWELL, W. Va., Jan. 23.-Lizzie Eckels, colored, was shot three times in the back by Thomas Potts because she refused to give him 10 cents to buy a drink. She died shortly afterward. He Will Brazil Arbitrate? London, Jan. 22.-The Brazilian legation here has no information regarding the report that the Brazilian govern ment and the insurgents are about to submit their differences to arbitration. The Puzzle Solved.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than pasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most nauseous and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very of coarse gold. few or no cases of radical cure of chronof treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has een most gratifying and surprising. No druggist is without it.

Physicians Say So.

The only way to cure sait rheum, eczema, pimples, boils, biothes and ulcers is by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. "I used numbers of so-called blood purifiers, writes Mrs. Beiinda Hodsdon, of Haverhill, N. H., without benefit, until I began to take Favorite Remedy. Although suffering from an ulcerated sore leg. a few bottles entirely cured me." 2t

O'Connell's Client. O'Connell had got a man off at one time for highway robbery and at another for lurglary, but on a third occasion, for stealing a coasting brig, the task of hood-winking the jury seemed too great for even his powers of cajolery. However, he made sut that the crime was committed on the high seas and obtained an acquittal. The prisoner lifted up his hand and eyes to heaven and exclaimed, "May the Lord long spare you, Mr. O'Connell—to me!"— Ban Francisco Argonaut.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is gauranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affection caused by impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as ours all Malaria for prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers. For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction gauranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cts.and $1,00 per bottle at D. J. Humphrey's drogstore. drugstore.

Elilified to a Reference.

Mr. Hightone—My dear, you must send that new girl away at once. She is not fit to have around.

Mrs. Hightone—I will just as quick as I can write her a reference.

"Reference? Do you mean to say you intend to give a creature like that a refer-

"Of course. How can I help it? If I don't, she'll tell everybody about the quar-rel you and I had last night and the—the way I talked to you."-Journal Amusant.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough of. I had used Chamberian's Cougal Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold sice. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it. 50 cent bottles for sale by D. J. Humphrey.

Latest From South Africa. CAPE TOWN, Jan. 22 .- A dispatch from Buluwayo, dated Jan. 14, says that King Lobengula, with a few of his followers, is entrenched close to the Zam-

Mrs. Cleveland in Public. Washington, Jan. 22.—Mrs. Cleveland held the first and only public reception of the season from 3 to 5 Saturday afternoon.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Contentment is natural wealth; luxury is artificial poverty.-Socrates.

During four centuries only 5,020 tons of gold have been produced in the world. The reason that rich men have so many friends is that they are capital fellows.

Don't worry about the past. The future is an unmarked blackboard, and you hold

The motto of a business man in Eric county, N. Y., is, "All things come to him who hustles while he waits." A lens exposed to the sun's rays in an optician's window frequently acts as a burning glass before being noticed. The making of lucifer matches is a state nonopoly in France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Roumania and Servia.

A large part of the average hackman's success is doubtless due to his knowing how to take people.—Buffalo Courier. Four state prisons-those of Connecticut. Michigan, Montana and Washington —use deprivation of religious privileges as

The Cathedral of Notre Dame stands upon the spot once occupied by a Roman temple. The first stone of the present edifice was Inid about 1163. Prejudice lurks in hidden corners of all punishment.

minds over which knowledge has not shed its penetrating light, and prejudice is the natural foe of magnanimity.

According to reports received at the war department, the Indian, as represented in the army, does not compare favorably with his white brother in the matter of sharpshooting. The latest sharp game reported is that of a New Yorker who advertises a handy method of writing without pen and ink It costs the inquisitive public $3 apiece to be told to use a pencil. Gold finds are common in Alaska, and Juneau is stirred up every week or so by the appearance of some miner from a newly prospected region with rich specimens of ore and occasionally with pockets full

In her advertisement the lady principal ic entarrh by any of the many modes of a school mentioned her lady assistant and the "reputation for teaching which she bears," but the printer left out the "which," so the lady's advertisment went forth commending the lady's "reputation for teaching she bears."

"A FAIR FACE MAY PROVE A FOUL BAR-GAIN." MARRY A PLAIN GIRL IF SHE USES

SAPOLIO